LOOKS WELL ON MAINE COAST.

Lots of Mackerel Being Taken on the Cape Shore.

Capt. Charles H. Harty is certainly hustling, being at Boston again today with a big fare of mackerel, 240 barrels salt and 150 barrels fresh. This is the second big trip that Capt. Harty has landed in two weeks and he is certainly striking the gait which has made him famous in past years.

Sch. Ralph L. Hall was becalmed off here this morning with 200 barrels of salt mackerel and 300 barrels of fresh mackerel on board. Tug Priscilla went out from here and towed her to Boston, where she will land her fresh fish.

The buyers seem to be somewhat shy of salt mackerel and no sales have been made this morning, although it can be stated that a sale will be made today at some figure.

Mackerel are plenty off Liverpool, N. S., one trap taking 150 bbls.

Fair catches are reported at Misquodoboit and Meat Cove.

FROM THE MAINE COAST.

Seiners Have Biggest Salt
Mackerel Fares of Season.

OVER 2000 BARRELS IN TODAY

Fish Taken Recently in Vicinity of Monhegan.

There are nine arrivals from the Maine coast with 2300 barrels of salt mackerel at this port this morning. Among these arrivals are some of the largest salt mackerel fares of the season, including sch. Arcadia, Capt. Anson Leman with 390 barrels, sch. Diana, Capt. James McLean, with 370 barrels, sch. Rival, Capt. Wesley Farmer, with 338 barrels, sch. Lottie G. Merchant, Capt. Christopher Carigan, 320 barrels, and sch. Victor, Capt. John W. McFarland, with 300 barrels salt mackerel and 4000 fresh mackerel in count.

The last fish which put the cream on these big fares were taken Wednesday and Friday off Monhegan.

The market shows signs of dropping off on account of these big fares and offers of $13.25 $13 have been made with no sales at 10.30 o'clock.

Captains all agree that there is a good body of fish on the Maine coast, but that they don't show only at just such times and then only for a little while. This northeaster they think will stir them up and cause them to show better and school more freely after it is over.

The fare of sch. Arcadia sold to Reed & Gamage at $13.75 per barrel.

Sch. Elsie F. Rowe arrived at Boston yesterday with a fine fare, 250 barrels of fresh mackerel and 40 barrels of salt mackerel. The fish were taken off Monhegan Saturday, the vessel securing a full fare in one set of the seine Schs. Electric Flash and Annie M. Parker got 75 barrel hauls at the same time.

Sch. Manomet, Capt. William Price, was at Boston Saturday with a dandy fare, 150 barrels of fresh and 150 barrels of salt mackerel.
